STUDENT ASSOCIATION MEETING

November 14, 1977

All Present.

Susan called the meeting to order at 5:30. Russ led us in prayer.

The SA will be nominating teachers for the Distinguished Teacher Award next week. We are given a list of eligible teachers and we select from them the teachers we feel the students would recommend.

A survey will be handed out in chapel tomorrow for each student to fill out concerning the Student Association and its roll on campus. We hope each of you will be candid in your answers.

The SAC committee will be sponsoring another coffee house this weekend with the help of Chi Sigs. The coffee house will feature Don Jackson. It will be Sunday night 7 and 9. Admission--.50¢

The Rescuers will be shown Friday night at 6:00, The Man Who Skied down Everest will be shown at 8:00, and the Rescuers shown again at 10:00. On Saturday night the Rescuers will be shown at 6:30. The movies will be shown in the Main Auditorium.

If you don't have hot water in your dorms, Fran would like for you to let your dorm manager know so we can correct it. Also the steps at the student services building are being fixed so nobody will fall.

Patti Cobb will now be open at 4:00 on Wednesday nights to better accomodate the students going to early church.

Russ talked with Dr. Olree, Chairman of the Phy. Ed. Dept., about Women's Collegiate sports. There is a program that many of the other AIC schools participate in for Women, but the problem would be finding a coach for the teams, dressing facilities, and money. Besides, the department is waiting to find out what HEW is going to require of the school, and set up a program accordingly. Something will be done, we just have to wait till we know exactly what Gov. regulations will be.

Steve Hughes checked into the strange ticket setup for our Football games. It seems that because the proceeds go to two different organizations that it is impossible to have one ticket. The AIC receives the money from gate passes, which students don't have to buy, (they use their ID's); and the Bison Boosters receive the money for reserved seats. So just remember to bring your ID's to all games!

Mark gave a report on the financial situation of the SA. We have a budget in the black!!! We are following the budget fairly close. Mark is doing a really good job.

Have a wonderful week! Study hard, it's only one more week till Thanksgiving! Won't you be thankful?!

For the SA,
Nita Allen
